

WHY AN EMERGING ENERGY TECHNOLOGY CONFERENCE?

To remain a foremost energy-producing state, Oklahoma continues to look at emerging issues and opportunities related to the growing variety of energy resources – both traditional and newer alternatives. This conference will highlight a variety of emerging technologies including advances in production techniques, as well as delivering energy to market.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Engineers, consultants, attorneys, and other service providers
- Project developers, investors, potential owners
- Product manufacturers and vendors
- Utilities
- Government agency representatives
- Renewable energy advocates
- Students

SPONSORSHIP INFORMATION

Sponsorship of this conference is available on a variety of levels. Please contact Carolyn Sullivan at (405) 815-5347 for more information on how your company can get involved and be a sponsor of Oklahoma's Emerging Energy Technology Conference.
